

Exam questions

1. Modern methods of sociological research
2. Quantitative and qualitative methods in sociological research
3. Types of quantitative and qualitative methods in sociological research
4. Ethnographic and historical research
5. Case study method
6. Standard methods as methods of qualitative analysis
7. Ethical values in research
8. Ethical principles in research
9. Ensuring the confidentiality and anonymity of research
10. Methods of observation and experiment in sociological research
11. Features of the observation method
12. Classification of the method of observation
13. Standardized non-participant observation
14. Features of the sociological experiment
15. Types of experiment
16. Methods for selecting experimental groups
17. Sociometry
18. Sociometric criteria
19. Requirements for conducting a sociometric survey
20. Processing and analysis of sociometric survey results
21. Referentometry
22. Types of referentometry
23. Case study specifics
24. Various approaches and theories
25. Types of case studies
26. Psychological tests in sociology
27. Individual and group tests
28. Classifications of tests on the subject of diagnostics
29. Achievement tests and psychological tests
30. Psychological tests: intellectual tests, projective tests, personality tests
31. Intellectual tests
32. Projective tests
33. Personality tests
34. Wartegg test
35. Big five personality test
36. Cattell test
37. Groups
38. Working with groups
39. Focus group
40. Interview
41. Group types
42. Questionnaire
43. Social psychology of personality
44. Social psychology of communication
45. Body language and physiognomy

